

LEGION TO PREPARE FOR HANSON SPEECH

Man Who Fights for Both Labor and Capital Will Come to Tulsa—
Brought by Joe Carson Post.

At the meeting tonight of the American legion plans will be furthered for the reception of the Hanson, former mayor of Seattle, who speaks in Tulsa at Convention hall the night of Wednesday, October 22. Mayor Hanson will speak in Tulsa under the auspices of the Joe Carson post of the American legion and will be the first speaker ever brought to Tulsa by the returned soldiers.

Holding strictly to the legion principles, the Joe Carson post will bring to Tulsa any speaker who will dwell on politics. The legion rejected Hanson as the one big man in America at this time whom the people are anxious to hear on account of his fight both for labor and capital.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16 IN THE BIG PAVILION

H. L. Burgess, Shorthorn King of Northeastern Oklahoma,
Has His 7th Sale, at
Home of the $10,000
Fair Acres Sultan
Bull Chelsea, Okla.

The music of saw and hammer on the enormous cattle pavilion here has been the daily cheer for all Chelsea for more than four months, and now it is completed, even to being lighted at night by its own electrical plant.

There were few who supposed that H. L. Burgess meant more than a nice compliment to the vicinity, when he came here in February and sold about forty Shorthorns at auction, announcing that he would probably attempt to build a finely appointed pavilion in which to sell the calves of the very cows offered for sale on that date.

Burgess at once bought a farm adjoining town for $25,500. He then bought the great 2nd Fair Acres Sultan, paying for him $10,000, the biggest sum ever paid for a Shorthorn bull in Kansas.

Mr. Burgess continued to hold sales, selling cattle all the way from $200 to $2,000 per head, and now offers on Thursday, October 16th, a splendid collection of mostly Scotch cattle that will be bought under the hammer at just what is bid on them.

This man is making a meteoric spin through the landmarks of modern Shorthorn history and the tail of his comet is sweeping about every Shorthorn community in the face from Iowa to Texas, and from Colorado to Florida. He is engaged as auctioneer in all the middle western and southern states. He ships his bargains here and feeds them out to his many customers at the price they make at the ringlets.

Five noted auctioneers assist in the sale here Thursday, October 16th. ADV.

FAMOUS MAGAZINE EDITOR CON- VERTED BY "BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

Charles Hanson Towne, of McClure's, Tells D. W. Griffith
He Has Immortalized Himself With His New Picture.

After seeing the premiere showing of D. W. Griffith's latest picture, "Broken Blossoms," in New York, where a distinguished company that included Mr. and Mrs. William McAdoo, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, had been invited to see the production, Charles Hanson Towne, editor of McClure's Magazine, wrote Mr. Griffith the following letter:

"Dear Mr. Griffith:
"I have never cared for motion pictures. So many are cheap and tawdry, and the stories seem to have so little relation to life as it is.

"But the other day I went to see 'Broken Blossoms' at the George M. Cohan theater and I stand converted. If stories can be told in this wonderful way on the screen then a new art has indeed arrived—an art as important at that of poetry and music.

"I could find no flaw in the production. As for what you have done to make this picture the living thing it is, I have no words to express my admiration.

"It is the greatest step forward that we have known. You have immortalized yourself. I feel that a new era has dawned."

"Broken Blossoms" in New York four sold months at $1.35 admission. In Chicago and San Francisco at $2.25. At the Rialto all next week, starting Sunday, at only 50c, including war tax.
